

Mrs. Annette Davis Carter

March 18, 1937 - November 27, 2022

Annette was born March 18, 1937, in Adams County, the daughter of Rena Clark Davis and Theodore Davis. She was educated in the Catholic School system. Early in her career, she worked at the Natchez Pecan Factory and Diamond International. Mrs. Carter was also a passionate entrepreneur who owned and operated multiple businesses, notably: clothing stores, antiques shops, lounges, a newspaper route, and a notary service.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Odell Carter, Sr., parents, son, Tony Carter, sister, Mary Green and two brothers, John Davis and Freddie Clark.

Annette leaves to cherish her memories: three sons: William Jackson (Delores), Odell Carter, Jr. (Mary) and Jerome Carter (Janice); six daughters: Deborah Woods, Norma Moore (Bruce), Wanda Jennings (Larry), Courtney Jones (Roosevelt), Tasheika Carter and Ladonna Davis (Kale); two brothers, James Davis (June) and Harold Davis; three sisters: Ida Davis, Bessie Stephenson (Terry) and Helen Barrow; ten grandchildren; eleven great grandchildren; four great-great grandchildren; a special friend, Edward Lee Dunmore; other relatives and friends.

“ Aunty Annette,

Our hearts are heavy & deeply saddened by your transition. Heaven has gained a true gem, indeed!

I know that you're out of pain, at peace and no longer suffering.

Thank you for all of the great long-lasting impactful childhood memories such as teaching me how to play cards. We use to have a grand time whenever you were around & it was always so much fun. You're truly missed. Rip Aunty.
