“ Barbara was my go to friend. what I mean by that is, no matter what I had going on; I could always depend on Barbara for a listening ear. Our conversations were exactly that, OUR coneverations. Whenever I finished venting, she would have this word, that only she could say with such passion. no conviction "na", A has that apple tone in it. It was so comforting to me. We had some great memories when Barbara stayed in Holiday Apts. I will truly miss my friend. I will forever you, Barbara. Stay strong and remember the love of life is what Barbara represented. Lean on each other and God will pull you through this trying time.

“ I'll always cherish our special chats. Whether we discussed fashion, family food or travel you gave an honest opinion. I especially enjoyed updates on the children. Your legacy will continue as they carry on what you and “Black Dot” instilled. You will now reconnect with friends and loved ones who transitioned to Heaven. Oh what's a time!!! Rest our special Angel. Much love Lorraine F. Franklin
