Missing you Momma!! Rest in Peace. Your legacy will live on in me. God saw you were tired so he took you to your Heavenly Home to rest. I thank you God for the time you allowed me to have her in my life. Forever in my Heart.

“ Granny,

I've finally found the words to describe the ruins of shattered pieces that my heart has been in since June 21, at 6:07 p.m. Your transition from earth to eternity, has literally knocked the wind out of me. I can't seem to get right, no matter how I try. You meant the world to me, and I did everything that I could to be a fraction of the person you were to me. Heaven gained an Angel, because that's what you were here on earth to me. I pass that house daily, wishing that I could be in your presence just one more time, even if it is just a brief moment. Your legacy will live forever! You did your best to let me know you would leave me, and I know you wanted rest, but I'm struggling, left with nothing but memories of the love that we shared. Just know I'm leaning & depending on him as you taught us, because no one can help me with this but him.

Rest in Beulah land, for one day, I'll see your face again.

*I will love you forever,
Stiffany*
