“ I met two beautiful sisters (Ms. Maggie and Ms. Carrie Evans) when they moved to Veiner Street and became my neighbors. We had a lot of wonderful conversations, most of them about the goodness of God. The sisters were close to each other and loved their family and others. Years later they moved. Then I learned that Ms. Maggie went home to be with God; and now Ms. Carrie has joined her. I can here them both REJOICING and I Can Only Imagine what it will be like when they meet their and my Savior, Jesus Christ! For a season they were given to us and now they are with God! My deepest condolences to the Evans and Logan family. May God bless each of you and keep you near or draw you to the cross.
