“ To Shirley and the entire Family Sometimes we just don't understand but keep trusting and believing in God you will understand by and by. For Charles eternal journey has begun. Charles heard something on Sunday, March 20, 2016 that none of us heard that was the voice of the Lord saying "come unto me my son and rest." Yes, we too are saddened to see the physical body of Charles gone however his soul is rejoicing with the present of the Lord and others that have done on before us. All you need God got it!! Ask him for strength, comfort and guidance. He was a man with a beautiful spirit and a smile on his face. We offer our deepest condolences to the entire family from the Hargrave's, Johnson's, and Fleming's families. You all are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ To The Family,

I wish to extend my heartfelt condolences to fellow family members (especially his wife, children, grandchildren, parents, siblings, nieces, and nephews) as we share in the loss of our dear loved one. Charles, was full of life, despite all the physical ailments that his body endured thru the years - indeed, he was an overcomer. Many fond memories of a life well-spent serving and supporting others in first to his God, his family, his church, and finally his community at-large is how I want to remember Charles. We worked together on various jobs, graduated together as North Natchez 1972 Rams, and shared an unashamed passion for our Dallas Cowboys.

So long for now "Soul Brother" as you rest in the arms of Jesus.
