“ To the Family of Charles Moore.

My condolences to all the Family!!!

Mr. Charles was a very smart individual in school and in the field he majored in. My family lived across the bayou from that Family. His mother was a very good Cook. My mother and I helped to pick cotton on their Land. And we enjoyed hearing his father sing Old Gospel songs late in the evening.

My Sincere Condolences to all the Family.

“ Charles will be remembered for his smile and a laughter that you never forgot after he would tell one of his long stories. Natchez won't be the same without him, but he'll be Splicing Cable lines, Climbing Telephone Poles and Troubleshooting 📞📠📱 with his friends and Co-Workers, Garnett Chaney, Hayes Harris, Lawrence Parker, Robert “Bobbielee” Shields, and Melvin C Tyler in Heavens Telephone Communications. He will certainly be remembered. Our deepest sympathy to the Moore family and continued prayers 🙏🙏🙏
