

Mrs. Charlotte Catherine Confer King

September 25, 1922 - August 11, 2019

Mrs. King was born September 25, 1922 in Natchez, the daughter of Bismark Confer and Lucille Henderson Confer. Charlotte was the first African-American Registered Nurse employed by International Paper Company in 1973. She was a member of Zion Chapel African Methodist Episcopal Church for many years where she served faithfully until her health failed. She was also a member of Eliza Pillars Nurses Association and the Elks Social Club. Charlotte enjoyed watching NBA basketball, track and field, gymnastics and competitive swimming.

She was preceded in death by her spouse: Harrison King, Jr., parents; daughter: Diane Powers; brothers: James and Albert Confer; granddaughters: Deven Powers and Lauren King.

Survivors include: two sons: Harrison L. King III and wife Ella of Natchez and Albert C. King and wife Adrienne of Sacramento, CA; two daughters: Donna Conner of Natchez and Denise Davis of Lake Charles, LA; one niece, six grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.
