“ Dearest Lucille, Alex let me know about Bear. I am so terribly sorry to hear this. He was certainly the kindest soul I had ever had the pleasure of knowing, and I considered him like a brother. I cannot imagine your sadness, and I send you all the Canadian love and prayers I have. With all my love, Janet Thomson

“ My best memory of Clarence is him always playing in the band and continuing on in the faith, His mother always commented on how he had changed for the better and continued his dreams as a musician and he gave his life to Christ. Rest in peace bear Junior and may your memories give you peace in your time of sorrow. Think of the fun memories you shared in his last days. Love you may your soul rest in Peace. Sincerely Peggy S. Buie and family
