“ Sister Debra was a beacon of light that guided me through some really dark times. Rarely in this life do you find someone as giving, loving, and sincere as she was. She will be truly missed by all who had the privilege of being blessed by her presence. One more soldier in the army of the Lord!!!! Look out Satan!!! She didn't play as a human so you're in more danger now that she has her wings!!!!

Debra thank you for the kind person that you were to me. Thank you for the warm messages that you would send to me every day. I will always treasure the affection and concern that you gave to me. I love you and missing the laughter we had at the 11 am hour or the late nights we talk had over a cup of coffee and sometimes breakfast. I will always remember the ending of our calls how we tell each other I Love you before we would hang the phone. Take your rest.

*I LOVE YOU,
Janice Martin-Lowery*

To my gorgeous sister Debra aka Lady Red- To know you was to love you. I thank God in His Infinite Wisdom for the love and kindness you extended to me my husband and my son for Christmas. You were special and even in death you shine as an awesome and amazing light of Love and tranquility. I thank God first for reuniting us and I thank you for really allowing me to experience the refreshing true love of a sister. Priceless.....

To Tina and siblings- Please allow the Divine Peace of God that surpasses all understanding keep you in Perfect Peace with a mind stayed on Jesus.

With Love and heartfelt condolences, Your Aunt-
