“ Dwilette, I have memories of your mom when she visited you at New Women Dormitory (Alcorn State University), where you lived as a student and where I was the Dormitory Director. She was a beautiful person both inside and out. Dwilette, I am sorry to hear about your mom. Every time I saw her, she would just smile especially when I inquired about you. I love you and I will continue to keep you in my heart and prayer. Here is a prayer for you and the family:

*Comfort them in your love O God
Wrap them up in your strong embrace
Shelter them from the storm O Lord
Envelop and seal them in your tender care*

Delilah's home going is an unfortunate reminder of the brevity of life. We were friends in high school. She was a dear sweet girl! Janice Walker Alexander
