

Mr. Earl Brown

April 22, 1938 - September 23, 2019

Mr. Brown was born April 22, 1938, in Natchez, the son of James and Mattie Brown. He was educated in Stampley and the Adams County Public School System where he graduated from Sadie V. Thompson High School in 1957. After graduating, he enlisted in the United States Army. He was previously employed with Marshall Fields and AT & T where he retired. Mr. Brown was a member of the St. Felicitas Catholic Church. Earl was smilled on when Rose Durrell walked into his life. The relationship was furthered blessed with the arrival of their pride and joy, a son, Broderick. Earl adored his son and the bond that developed between father and son was never broken. They loved and respected each other until the very end. An earlier marriage to Hattie Brown also blessed Earl with a stepson, Lavelle, with whom he shared a special bond. This bond also allowed Earl to enjoy the role of grandfather. Earl was by nature a family man nd thus became a favorite uncles to all of his nieces and nephews. He was generous to a fault and showered them with his love, his compassion and his kindness. He enjoyed buying, repairing and flipping real estate and watching his favorite sport games on television. Survivors include: son: Broderick Brown; step-son, Lavelle Darsey; grandson, Yahmani Lavelle Dorsey; beloved nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, cousins and special friend, David Dodd and other relatives and friends.
