

Ms. Ebony Monique Mignon Jones

March 14, 1981 - July 29, 2025

Ebony was born March 14, 1981, the daughter of Dianne Harris Evans and Charles Knight. She received her Bachelors degree in Early Childhood Development and was pursuing a Masters in Clinical Mental Health at Alcorn State University. Ebony was a teacher at Early Headstart and a member of Christian Hope Baptist Church. She held membership with It Still Takes a Village organization where she served as secretary. Ebony enjoyed reading, cooking, dancing and spending time with family and friends.

She is preceded in death by her grandmother, Virginia Green, father, Charles Knight and brother, David Williams.

Ebony leaves to cherish her memories: her mother, Dianne Evans; sons: Jeffery Franklin, Jr., Jadon Jones, Jaxon Jones; daughters: Jordan Franklin; Jailyn Franklin; brothers: Charles Williams, David Smith; sisters: Tiffany Williams, Precious Fitzgerald, Kimberly Johnson, Tameka Leakes, Harmony Flowers; grandparents; Audrey Knight and Edward Knight; nieces: Kamari Brown and Brooklyn Byrd; nephew, Londynn Carter; godsister, Alana Brown, uncles, aunts, other relatives and friends.

My sweet girl,I will miss you soooo much,your soft spoken voice,beautiful smile and all the times we talked,saying,"I love you". You were and always will be a bright light in my heart.You were your Father's joy,his twin;and "Yes,you did get your good looks from grandmother Audrey". You are with Jesus and your Dad,safe and loved.Your TT Shirley will forever love you with all my heart. 🤔🤔❤️❤️
