“ *I first met Rev. Bolin when he joined Natchez-Adams School District as a Security Officer and I was a Principal. He was always courteous, patient and kind to students and staff. His patience with children was the greatest. Daily, he said something positive to those who needed encouragement the most. He was genuinely a Godsend. Rest In Paradise Rev. Bolin, Lorraine F. “ I met and worked with Mr. Bolin when he was the school security officer at Morgantown Elementary. He was an advocate for education and always had a kind word and would share scripture with you. The faculty and students loved him. Condolences to his family. He spoke highly of them and was proud of his family. R.I.P.
