“ A mother to all. She would always be willing to help if she could. She took time to speak, share God's word and love even in chastisement. She loved to fish, always willing to teach others how to, and make you laugh but she always shared and left you with the gospel. An adopted aunt, mother, grandmother to all who met and knew her. I will miss you and remember our times of laughter and the sharing of God's word. Watching Perry Stone and others we enjoyed will never be the same. You spoke of the season coming to an end but God knew best. Take your rest my friend. Much love. Zelda Argue and your bonus babies Mark and Markecia.
