

Mrs. Gloria Mae Wright Singleton

May 17, 1939 - June 13, 2025

Gloria was born May 17, 1939 in Natchez, the daughter of Agnes Lewis Thompson and John Wright, Sr. She was a graduate of McClymonds High School in Oakland, CA and Natchez College, and later attended Alcorn State University, where she majored in Elementary Education. She was baptized at an early age at the McGee Avenue Baptist Church in Berkeley, CA. Gloria loved earrings and enjoyed reading her Bible and books, listening to music, visiting the beauty salon, doing crossword puzzles, writing poetry, and spending time with her family.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Ernest Singleton; and sister, Mary Catrina Wright; sister-in-laws, Thelma Stancel and Getta Singleton; and brother-in-laws, Vernel Singleton and Matthew Nivens. Gloria leaves to cherish her memories: son, Allen Singleton (Jennifer); daughters, HRH Princess Karen Chatman (Rayshon), Ernestine Singleton Thomas (Ronald), and Dr. Sandra Singleton Green (Michael); brother, John Wright, Jr.; sisters, Vera Nivens and Raven S. Wright; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Our mother like so many others was incredible ! A small town girl with the ambition and resilience to change the world . She independently provided 3 daughters and one son with an incredible gift of self love and the sense of never accepting defeat. My mom will never leave our memory as she is imprinted within our soul.

“ Mrs. Gloria Mae Wright Singleton leaves behind a legacy of faith, grace, and love. In this sacred time of remembrance, may you feel the comforting arms of the Savior holding you close. God promises that “those who sow in tears shall reap in joy” (Psalm 126:5). May your tears water the beautiful garden of memories she planted in your lives.
