

Rev. James Edward Beverly

February 7, 1934 - June 23, 2024

Rev. Beverly was born February 7, 1934 in Natchez, the son of Annie Jones Conner and James Edward Beverly. He was educated in the Louisiana School System. He was a Pastor for over 60 years. In the late 1960s, he was a member of the Natchez Chapter of the NAACP and participated in the Civil Rights Movement. In his spare time, he loved to travel, read his Bible, watch westerns, and help people.

He is preceded in death by wives, Carlotta Bacon Beverly, Onia Bottley Beverly, and Deloris Robinson Beverly; son, Joseph Ray Beverly; daughter, Cassandra Louise Chatman; and grandchildren, Braxton Robinson and Roslyn Robinson.

Rev. Beverly leaves to cherish his memories: his sons, James Beverly III, Ronnie Conner (Jane), and Barrette Robinson; daughters, Yolander Davis, Brenda Beverly, Patricia Beverly, Katrina Jones, Angela Thomas, Cursandra Robinson, and Rotundria Robinson; brothers, George Conner, Jr. (Maxine), Larry Conner (Wanda), and Roosevelt Conner; sisters, Leola Collins (Everett), and Rosalie Handy (Willie); a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

“ My sincere condolences to the Beverly family. Another soldier has left the battlefield and is making his way home. I will always have my memories of you GodBrother and my time with you in Sacramento, Ca. when I was young. You fight a good fight for a long time, you have sheperded many souls to Christ and your legacy will live on as a true servant of The MOST HIGH. Will forever love you GodBrother...Maxine Williams and The Williams Family, Ferriday, La.
