

Mr. James Flanagan, Jr.

September 25, 1941 - January 10, 2022

James was born Sept. 25, 1941, the son of James Flanagan, Sr. and Pinkie Bonds. He was a 1960 graduate of Sadie V. Thompson High School. He was an icon due to his musical talent and his unique skills playing baseball, football, and tennis. Mr. Flanagan was also a United States Army Veteran. He enjoyed sports, card playing, and music.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Pinkie Rounds; stepfather, Edward Rounds; birth father: James Flanagan, Sr.; son, Reginald Flanagan; ex-wife, Vertis Rowan-Flanagan and brother and sister-in-law: Johnnie and Josephine Rounds.

James leaves to cherish his memories: one son, Kevin Flanagan (Angela) of Dallas, TX; girlfriend, Shirley White of Milwaukee, WI; two brothers, Charles Rounds, Sr. (Josephine); Rev. Richard Rounds (Marsha); three sisters, Elaine Rounds, Theresa "Tiny" Rounds and Debra Rounds Duncan (Cedric); grandchildren, Brandon and Myles Flanagan; great grandchild, Brooklyn James Flanagan, a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

“ Mr. Flanagan was a very dear friend of our family in Milwaukee Wisconsin. He and my dad, George Boswell, and uncle, Levi Miller, Jr played music together for many years. As a matter of fact, Mr. Flanagan would open the show and introduce our dad. He had a good speaking voice and was a very good saxaphonist.

I have fond memories of those days and remember Mr. Flanagan as a devoted father, husband, and friend. I am so glad I had a chance to spend some time with him when visiting Milwaukee in 2019.

May the Lord Jesus be with the family during this time. May you experience the peace, goodnesss, and comfort of God.
