The Race: My heart is heavy and full of sorrow. I carry the weight of yesterday, today and tomorrow. I keep crying out to You, Oh Lord, but it seems that You're not there. Help me to hold on; because for me I know You care. From situation to situation at times I feel in despair, for having to be the strength for others, who-of Your presence-are unaware. Comfort me in Your secret dwelling place. Till the end I will endure, that I may see You Face to Face. For great is Your mercy and great is Your grace. For You I keep running, Oh God, until I finish this race!! Love Devell Blanton and Family
