“ YOU WERE SUCH A POSITIVE LADY. I can't remember a time we came in contact with each other that u didn't brighten my day. I remember you requested a parent/teacher conference w/me when you taught De'Asia in the 6th grade. There was a group of young ladies she thought she couldn't live without that meant her no good at all. Your words to me were "I refuse to sit here and allow her to sit on her blessings. There isn't anything I can put in front of her that's a challenge to her. She has began to rush through her work to entertain or fit in with the young ladies who don't put forth any effort at all. I KNOW SHE CAN DO IT, but her "so called friends" r gonna be her downfall. Talk to her & let her know that that's not the road to follow for success, that's a road to destruction. You have a "SCHOLAR" on your hands mom." From that day forward De'Asia noticed you had her best interest at heart and loves you dearly. I thank you for all you done for her. You were her angel...SHE MISSES YOU DEARLY. GOD HAS DEFINITLY GAINED AN ANGEL. Rest on Ms.Davis. WE LOVE YOU BUT GOD LOVED YOU BEST

“ To cousin Janice, I love you very much and I'll see you later??. To my cousin Steve, God's timing allowed you to come home for a season and enjoy home once again. Now you're transitioning and may God bless every step that you take according to His word! To my cousin KeSean, remember how your mom used to "get you" at Shiloh before, during and after those speeches we had to do for Easter and Christmas? Cherish those intimate times and share them with your children. To my cousin Baby Janice, you may be the baby of the bunch but you have become a very successful young woman. You have the privilege not only to carry the Davis name, but the whole name of Janice Faye Davis. With that being said, put on the whole armor of God and finish what your mother instilled in you Dr. Davis! God bless you guys and I love you very much!
