

Mr. John E. Washington

June 27, 1953 - February 12, 2021

John was born June 27, 1953 in Natchez, the son of Emma Jane Washington and Alfred Washington. He was educated in the Wilkinson County School District and was a retired cross-country truck driver. Mr. Washington was a member of Union Baptist Church in Perrytown, MS where he served as a deacon and the choir. For over 30 years, John sang with many choirs and as a soloist on many occasions. He enjoyed singing, listening to and making music, truck driving and spending time with family.

He is preceded in death by his parents, two sisters Joyce Houston and Annie Lee Hillard.

John leaves to cherish his memories: wife Flotie Thompson Washington; son, Kendrick Thompson and Emanuel Jones; daughters, Jacqueline Coleman (Eddie) and Lashawn Washington; seven brothers, Julius Washington, Joe Nathan Washington, Thomas Washington, Darrius Washington, George Washington, Frank Hill and Willie J. Washington; sisters, Estella Gaulden, Alline Thompson, Patricia White, Thomastine Washington, Sandra Williams and Maggie Brady and other relatives and friends.

“ John was my first cousin. His father Willie J. Washington was my mom's brother. He had a beautiful voice and he loved to sing. Whenever we saw each other, we would joke around. He was an outgoing person.. He would always say he was the good looking man of the family. That's when the arguing started. I will miss my cousin. I hated when they stop letting visitors come to dialysis. I had him, my niece and nephew on dialysis. You have been through so much so take your rest. We loved you but God loved you best.

“ I mostly remember John singing. He song at my sister and his aunt Dine funeral. He always was so respectful. I remember he'll always come by to set and talk with mom (Lillie Mae). We'll surely miss you !
