“ I will forever remember Jon'Keydra. I taught her during her senior year and was her teacher when she graduated. She was determined to succeed and was instrumental in the success of others in the class, including her brother John. She was so proud the day she graduated and I was so proud of her. I will always remember her beautiful smile and her “take charge” attitude. It was truly a joy to teach her. She will be sorely missed. Berthenia Rose Jackson
