In this world, he overcame many challenges. My heart is still broken into a million pieces without you being here with us. My brother was one of my favorite people. His true actions were really heartwarming and kind. Since he was a teenager, he suffered from mental illness. No more hospitals, no more medications for him! We were sad to see him leave us. I am sure those on the other side is glad he is with them. As sick as you had been We never thought, a plum seed would have taken you away from us. Love don't die and your memories with us will last forever too. until we meet again.... you will always be on my mind. Pray for our family. (Our family not okay!) Joseph wasn't the weakest member of the family. Joseph was the kindest member of our family. He loved all of us. Let TRUE LOVE, be the lesson Joseph taught us in this world. My brother was a miracle and a blessing to this world. He told me, he had to learn how to fight! He won the battle! He didn't fight to divide this family; his mission was for this family to love one another. He was a man of love and peace. He wanted to spend his last night on this earth, at my house. (I almost cried when I asked my sister to please, let him spend the night with us.) She said, NO! I forgive her. Let's truly love one another, not try to be more important than one another; because of material things. I believe, only our soul and our spirit can leave this earth with us. (Let those without flaws, be the first to cast a stone!)
