

Mr. Larry Darnell Promise

July 29, 1955 - June 28, 2018

Larry was born on July 29, 1955 in Natchez, the son of John T. Promise, Sr., and Audrey R. Promise. He was a 1973 graduate of Ferriday High School. Mr. Promise was a retired dock worker and a Baptist. He enjoyed cooking, listening to music and sports and was a “die-hard” Dallas Cowboys fan. Larry was full of life with a beautiful heart and soul that he extended to his family and all that crossed his path---he was the “life of the party”

He is preceded in death by his father.

Survivors include: his mother; two sons: Larry Darnell Promise, Jr., and Lamar Derrell Promise; seven brothers: Richarter T. Jackson, Alex D. Promise, Sr., Ronald C. Promise, Sr., John T. Promise, Jr., Clinton D. Promise, Sr., Darian D. Promise, and Michael Weatherspoon; four sisters: Janice B. Promise, Shawana Promise Hunter, Vanessa D. Promise and Georgia Bennett, and other relatives and friends.

Family my heart is heavy because it is almost one year ago Larry and I saw each other again. We were so happy to see each other and got a chance to talk. His smile is all I see as I reminisce my visit with him.

My Prayers & Thoughts are with our Family as we acknowledge God has done nothing wrong but his death is still hard. With Deepest Sympathy I Light my candle in honor of Cousin Larry.

“ To the Promise Family. I am one who was raised and went to school with Larry. I have not seen or talked with Larry after our separation. Larry was full of life and I would dedicate any song from Bobby Womack in his memory. Daniel Brown
