“ My memory of Larry, any time I bumped into him, can be summed up in 3 words: Warm, Kind, and Respectful. That's how he always was towards me. That's how I will remember him.

To the Young family..my heart is sad because yours has been broken. I'm sorry. Death is such an enemy! One day, soon, it will no longer exist (Isaiah 25:8)..until then, we do our best to love, support, comfort one another..and rely on God for strength to cope. ☐ 🙏

“ My sincerest condolences to the Young family. Larry will always be the heart of loved ones. His was one of a kind. Larry, his brother Wibbie, and my deceased husband Johnny brought energy and excitement to gatherings, pregame predictions and game days. No one could “out talk” him when it came to football. (smile) Rest in paradise top sports fan. Love Lorraine Fleming-Franklin
