“ The Wallace Family Moved Into Our Neighborhood Somewhere In The 1970's . It Was Only Until Around The Year Of 2016 Or So That I Was Granted The Privilege Of Getting To Know Mr. Wallace As He Recruited Me Of Sorts & Gave Tutorage As Serving As A Deacon In Training . In The Process Of Doing So We Both Discovered A Very Close Friendship & Fondness Of Each Others Company & Conversation . Many A Laugh & Much Wisdom Was Shared Over The Wallace Kitchen Table . Mr. Wallace Was Always A Giving & Unselfish Person With Great Wisdom , Compassion & Dedication To His Church , His Family & To All That He Came Into Contact With . I Am Grateful For The Short Time That We Had Together As Friends & Regret That I Didn't Meet You Sooner . You Will Be Sincerely Missed .

Sincerely
Robert S. Wimley
