Linda was born November 24, 1951, in Adams County, the daughter of Jessie Parker Carroll and Marrion Carroll. She was a high school graduate from Sadie V. Thompson High School. She received her bachelor's degree in elementary education from Jackson State University, and later received her master's degree in elementary education from Southern University. Linda was a teacher for the Natchez Adams School District for over forty years until her retirement. She was a member of the Forest Aid Baptist Church.
