“ A Poem:

"If Tomorrow Starts Without Me"

*When tomorrow starts without me,
And I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
all filled with tears for me.*

*I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things,
We didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you,
and each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too*

*So when tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me,
I'm right here, in your heart.*

*LOVE ALWAYS
THE LEWIS FAMILY

“ Lisa Johnson was so special that she is almost indescribable. She was smart, talented, fun, and incredibly kind. She loved and accepted everyone. Lisa's death is not only a loss to her family and friends but to the entire Natchez community. I never hear the song, "His Eye is on the Sparrow," without thinking of Lisa, because no one could sing it like she sang it. The lyrics of the song are especially poignant in the context of her loss, because everyone who knew her knows--- His eye is on the sparrow, and we know He watches her.
