“ We were neighbors but the relationship was sisterly, family! I was honored when she asked me to be her daughter's godmother! Through out our lives we remained close. The sisterhood was never broken. My heart is heavy; but, I have so many wonderful memories that will forever be a blessed part of my life. To my other sisters Nellie, Karen and Vivian; her grandchildren, great grands let's keep Nan's candle shining bright! She had a lot of heart, and devotion for everyone! She never lost her ability to love and communicate! As I wipe away the tears I can have comfort in knowing that our last words we shared over the phone were "I love you"! Sixty-six years we shared; she lives on in my heart! Love to my family!!
