

Mrs. Lula Duck Wade

December 18, 1929 - November 9, 2014

Mrs. Wade was born on December 18, 1929 in Jefferson County to the late Emma Haley and the late P.K. Pendleton. She graduated with a B.S. from Alcorn State University, a M.S. from Texas Southern University, a Specialist Degree from the University of Southern MS. She was a retired educator. Mrs. Wade was a member of the King Solomon Missionary Baptist Church where she served in the Willing Workers Auxiliary and the Senior Choir. She held memberships with Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority & Caring Women. Lula enjoyed reading, traveling, shopping, and event planning.

Lula was preceded in death by her parents, daughter: Barbara Holland; sisters: Francis Pendleton, Bettie Middleton and brother: Michael Haley.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her husband: Manson Wade; a son: Manson LaShawn Wade, two daughters: Patricia Duck, Debra Ware, a brother: Joseph (Karen) Haley of Portland, OR; two sisters: Linda (Kenneth) Coffie of Fayette, MS, Gwendolyn H. Williams of Atlanta, GA; four grandchildren: Kimberly D. Givens, Jeffery Duck, Torrey Duck, Christopher Holland; sister-in-law: Bettye Peoples of Baltimore, MD, & a host of relatives and friends.

The family is requesting that in lieu of flowers, make donations to the Lula Mae Duck Wade Scholarship Fund.

“ Never Grow Old~~~~

To our cousins Pat, Gene and LaShawn:

*May the memories of your mom always comfort you,
So that she always live in your hearts~*

*May her spirit enfold each of you,
So that you will always know the peace and promise of eternity~*

*May the love and thoughts of others console each of you at this difficult time,
So that you will always know you are not alone~*

*God has made a beautiful choice, for he picked our dear loving cousin,
Lula-Mae Duck Wade to enter her new heavenly home where She Shall Never Grow Old~*

With our condolence,
