“ Greteal, Dan, Curtis, Joy, Tiger, Trina & Jay:

From across the miles, I so much share your brokenness at Mom's passing. Through prayer and faith we do know, however, that strength will come to comfort and sustain us during this dark time.

The first time Mom and I met (at the Natchez airport all those years ago), I knew instantly that a very special, very caring, kind and loving person had just entered into my life; I knew she had accepted me as one of her own. From that moment, I have loved her dearly and cherished the oh-so-special bond between us that we both so thoroughly enjoyed. I will continue, always, to honor and cherish that great bond; I know how blessed I am that she was in my life. And, of course, all of our great family times together are simply unforgettable!

Forever #1
