“ Mom, today marks one year since you passed away. They say it gets easier with time and perhaps that is true but today my heart is sad and misses you as it did 12 months ago. I take comfort in knowing that you are resting restfully peaceful in heaven but I wish you were still here with me. Every day for the rest of my life, I will remember and honor you - my first love! - Always, Nita

“ Walking hand-in-hand in Pecanland Mall as an adult talking and connecting and shopping for something in our favorite purple color...this is one of my most special memories of my dear Aunt Moke. Many memories come to mind when I think of her, like my childhood memories of knowing she was coming to pick me up for the Christmas holiday every year, which continued for many years. It was interesting: one day she didn't exist and then there she was, every year...this sweet generous soul who chose to make me a part of her family...that's how I remember my Aunt Moke. Rest in peace Aunt Moke. You will be missed.

Ms. Margaret a woman of love, kindness and joy! She made you feel loved from the first moment. Nita, your mom was a pillar of love. She's now resting with the angels until we all get home. What a day of rejoicing that will be! Love the Brazzell's

“ There are families that you are born into and there are families that you are welcomed into. Thank you Ms. Margaret, my other mother, for embracing me as a part of yours and blessing me with a sister!

Now that you are heavenly bound, it is comforting to know that the table will be set and the food prepared when we all see one another again. Rest In Peace! I love you!

“ Mom,
My heart is broken, yet I remain grateful.

Grateful that God loved me so much that he chose you as my mom.

Grateful for all the life lessons you taught me, even when you didn't realize you were teaching.

Grateful for all the unconditional love you showed me my entire life.

Grateful for your wit and charm and all the giggles we shared over the years.

Grateful that you had the foresight and confidence in me to relocate to California when you realized you needed help.

Grateful that I got to share every day of the last 18 months with you.

Grateful that while God blessed you to witness my first breath, he bless me to be with you when you took your last.

Grateful that we will forever share a bond that even death cannot break.

Every single day for the rest of my life, I will miss and love you mom.

“ Margaret was one of the funniest, sweetest & caring people that I've ever met. Some of the fondest memories I have of her was how she always insisted on sharing her meals with me. I'd tell her that I'd already eaten or wasn't hungry and she'd say "gone and eat it".. when I declined her she'd take me by the hand and say "come on, let's go to my room and talk". I would always oblige her.. and we'd hold hands walking down the hallway together to go sit in her room and chat. I will always love and remember Mrs Margaret.
Affectionately, Veronica

“ West Gate Funeral Home and staff expresses its deepest sympathy to your family.
" Those we love remain with us, for LOVE itself lives on,
And cherished memories never fade because a loved one is gone.
Those we love can never be more than a thought apart
For as long as there is memory, they'll live on in the heart."
