“ To the family of Marie Jenkins. I have known Marie for a many years. Beginning in St. Joe, Louisiana. She used to straightened our hair on Saturday ( beautician). She was always very pleasant and kept a smile. Never a dull day around her, she lifted your spirit if you were down. In church when she prayed, she would always say "when the clock on the wall stop time, time want be no more". Something in that nature. Take your rest Marie. We love you and will truly miss you. Terry, and Diniah

“ Cousins, it is with fond memories that I share in the homegoing of Marie, one of the longest living offspring of the John & Hester Or Minerva or Clara Lyons family via his daughter Julia Lyons Fair, Her commitment to the Lord and Savior via Bible study, singing, and church and community activities only wanned when her health kept her for them. I enjoyed our time together in the Thursday Vidalia-Ferriday Bible Study (2013-2020) and my last visit with her in 2024, May the memories of a well-spent life remain and a joyful reunion give you the joy and peace you need at this time and in the future.

“ Blessings and prayers to Ms. Marie’s family. She was such a loving person who enjoyed her family, her church family and Vidalia community events. Her biggest smile was when she was asked to sing. The heavenly choir can get ready because Ms. Marie has arrived. Rest in paradise sweet Angel. Love and Peace, Lorraine Fleming-Franklin
