“ You were like a bright shining star that always walked into my office. Always a smile and to make sure I kept my chin up! On my saddest day you made me laugh, and see things so differently. Your door was always open to me, and my baby girl. Our weekly talks became so special to me. I always looked for your car, and we counted down your retirement together. The day you brought your family in to meet us all, warmed my heart. You weren't just a resident to me, but my dear friend. I will never forget the day I was so worn out and you said, my Michelle, girls will be girls. I have been there. Knowing I was holding back tears, you made me laugh, and we cried together. I got the most awesome hug I had ever had. These are just some of my sweet mementoes. I was able to hug your sweet sister, and beautiful daughter after you left for heaven. But my heart still hurts. I will be praying for them, and I will always remember and cherish our times together Mrs Pat. The strongest lady I have ever known. You will always be a beautiful memory to me, and made the biggest foot prints on my heart. I love you. Until then- Fly high and God speed. Love always, your Michelle. Isaiah 40:31
