“ Robert was my uncle. My grandmother was his sister. Robert lived with us here in Chicago for a significant amount of time during my childhood. He always kept us laughing. Called his wallet a bill fold. Had no clue what he was talking about the first time he asked my brother to pass him his bill fold. Lol. He loved chilling in his chair in the living room drinking a coke and watching the game (baseball ) on TV. Robert was pretty entertaining. I lost contact with him after my grandmother passed away and he moved away. May he rest in peace.

“ I met "Duck" as an usher at New Beginnings Missionary Baptist Church. We connected immediately. When he would go out of town, he made sure he brought a token back for me. Strangely enough, one of my cousins was at church and she said to me, "You know he is your cousin, don't you?" Well, I didn't know that. But we talked and realized the family connection. We became closer. When I missed church, Duck made sure he checked on me to see what was going on. I did the same for him. He was such a special person who had a way of cheering you up when you were feeling down. He would say, "Cuz, I just thought about you and wanted to call and check on you." And when we became the "Rockin' Ushers of New Beginnings, well, Duck was the main attraction. I loved to watch him as he rocked down the aisle of the church. He had that unique swag to his rock! He was a very important part of our Usher Ministry and we all loved him dearly. He had such a caring and loving attitude. Before he got sick, he was going to teach the ushers a new rock. But he didn't get a chance to do it. So now I guess we are stuck with the ones we know. Duck truly loved his church, his pastor and the disciples of New Beginnings. And we all loved him!!! To my cousin Robert, I say, "Rock On, Duck!"
