

Mrs. Roberta Brazile Dyer

July 30, 1929 - May 24, 2020

Roberta was born July 30, 1929 in Franklin County, the daughter of Charles Brazile and Amanda Marshall Williams. During her early childhood, she and her family moved to Natchez where she attended Brumfield School. She united in marriage to James Dyer and moved to Chicago in 1964. While in Chicago, Mrs. Dyer was a faithful member of Fellowship Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Clay Evans, where she sang in the senior choir. She was a faithful member of Zion Flower Missionary Baptist Church in Natchez under the leadership of the late Rev. Wilson Ford, Sr. until she become ill. In February, 2019, Mother Dyer united with Pilgrim Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Melvin White. Roberta enjoyed cooking, singing, and fashions.

She is preceded in death her husband, parents, and brother, Hardis Calcote. Roberta leaves to cherish her memories a loving sister, Margaret Reed of Chicago, IL; five nieces, Valeria Calcote, Roslyn Bray, Sandi Banks, all of Dallas, Rita Brooks of Natchez and Annissa Calcote of San Jose, CA; sister-in-law, Rosie Calcote- Layton; devoted family friend, Michael Washington and a number of other relatives and friends.
