“ Rosie was an absolute delight to talk to. I called her "cool". I always loved her conversation and spirit about life. I met her about 8 years ago in her later years. She was always positive, even after once telling me of a fall she had, saying it could have been worse. I know she always knew and commented on how blessed she was. We once talked about smoking and her explicit comment was, "glad I gave that up", prolonged my life. Blessed to live such a fruitful life and be an inspiration to those around her, I know she'll be missed so deeply.

She was the light in the room; I'd make my way to her room to see her if she wasn't out front. You could tell from her conversations she could make lemonade out of a day going sideways. You'll be missed so Dearly as they called you Dear, and I know your wisdom will always be missed and used by those you shared your life with. Rest in Peace as God has now received one of his most precious souls.
