Ruby you were always there for me as a child growing up. You took good care of me as if I was your own. Mother worked all the time. You were always a hard worker, @ home and on your jobs. Only did I fine out you weren't, my mother, when you got marry and moved. Even then I could always have you do special things for me like pressing and curling my hair, to get me out the 3 braids mama always gave me. 😭 I will love and miss you forever my Second Mama. I still got the Beautiful pad and pen you gave me, the last time I came to visit you. We love you, but God love you more. So go on and get in the Heavenly Choir. Gonna miss you calling me on my birthday and singing Happy Birthday. Rest on my sister. I will love you forever. Your baby sister Ida Malone McCarver💕💕💕😊
