“ Ruby, this Ruby is going to miss you, my sister in Christ for a while. My life has been blessed to know you. Thank you for our visits where it seemed we could just sit and talk forever. You are a strong, rich, determined and dedicated woman of God. No matter what, if your body would let you go, you went at every call for help. God called, you were there. What a precious spirit of love you shone continually for everyone. You let your light shine, and I have no doubt you heard a welcome home into heaven that included the phrase "good and faithful servant". You will be deeply missed, but knowing your body of troubles has been shed and you are surely dancing, laughing with joy, singing and praising our Father in His presence soothes away our sorrows. Carl and I, and probably everyone who has ever met you, including all in Believer's World Ministries, love you very much. Welcome Home! We will see you later.

“ Apostle,

You came to live a life full of purpose. You did so with grace, love, and intention. I remember the long talks we've share, the rides to and from different church events, the lessons you taught us. I am because you are...You are a builder of churches.. Me being one of the churches you built. Thanks for my season with you. I am a better person because of your knowledge and your love for the Lord. You were not a respecter of persons. You loved all you came into the knowledge of. When you came to me, we loved on one another and shared what was needed between loved ones, therefore, what's understood...need not to be explained. I love you intentionally. Sleep for now. I will see you again. Taji, Mallory, Derrick and Ivan live as she did in order to see her again. Much love for you and my prayers for you all.

“ To me she was known as Momma Ruby. A strong woman of God who was alot like my mother. I will miss her dearly. Taji, not just a co-worker but also friend. Be strong in the Lord and the power of His might. Remember to let the Father order your steps. Trust in the Lord with all your might and lean not unto your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge the Father and He will direct your path. The Heavenly Father has you in His arms.-Angela
