

Mr. Silas Jones, Jr.

January 25, 1926 - June 19, 2024

Silas was born January 25, 1926, the eldest child born to Silas Sr. and Excelena Jones. He was a member of the Smithland Baptist Church where he served faithfully as a Deacon until his health failed. Silas worked in construction and was employed by R.L. Hensley Construction Co. and worked as a skilled carpenter. He enjoyed discussing the Bible, talking politics, and cooking. Silas also enjoyed singing and listening to Gospel quartet music. He traveled all over the Miss-Lou area singing 1st tenor with the Southland Singers Quartet. He is the last surviving member of the group.

He is preceded in death by his first wife, Louise Ford Jones and second wife Rosie Marie Ross Jones; his parents; his sons, Walter L. and Rosevelt Jones.; daughters, Mamie L. Jones-Davis and Rosemary Jones; brothers, James Albert, Merrick, Sam, Sr., and Charles Edward Jones; and sisters, Emma R. January, Mary Joyce Robinson, and Mary Ellen Ford.

Chun leaves to cherish his memories: daughters, Gloria J. Johnson, Debby A. Green and Jennifer Jones (Jenny Mack); sons, Aaron L. Jones, Willie B. Jones (Quartreeta), and Johnny Hines, Jr.; brother, Theodore Jones; sister, Gloria Jackson; grandchildren, great - grandchildren, a great great grandchild, and a host of nieces, nephews, the Smithland Baptist Church extended family, and personal care providers.
