

Mrs. Slovicka Shalon Sims Thomas

July 30, 1975 - March 6, 2023

Slovicka was born July 30, 1975 in Vicksburg, the daughter of Nora Sims Coleman and John Tyler Sims. After graduating from high school, she received her Bachelor of Science in Early Childhood Development from the University of Southern Mississippi. Slovicka was an educator in the Concordia Parish School System. Mrs. Thomas was an Associate Pastor, volunteer with Gerald Owens House of Hope and member of the Joy Station Children's Ministry. She enjoyed spending time with children and traveling.

She is preceded in death by her fraternal twin, Sophichi Shalon Sims; her maternal grandparents, Houston Granderson, Sr. and Adene Shelby Granderson and her paternal grandparents: Robert Tyler Sims and Susie Ware Sims.

Slovicka leaves to cherish her memories: her husband, Willie Tyrie Thomas; mother and stepfather, Nora Coleman (Walter); bonus children: Titus Thomas and Tynesha Thomas; brother, Keith Lamar Sims, and other relatives and friends.

“ Mrs. Thomas will be missed tremendously by her peers and all of the students she came in contact with during her tenure at CPSB. She always had a glowing smile She shared many inspirational, kind, and supportive words to me. She was a joy to be around. May God strengthen her family and friends during your time of bereavement.
