“ Ms. Tamara was our neighbor. We will truly miss her sitting on her porch with her dog barking and looking out for our kids while they played outside. We were grateful to have had her as a neighbor. Rest well my friend. No more pain or suffering. - Hayes Family

“ Tampa and I were neighbors as children. One evening Tampa came out to play but she also had bought out a slice of cornbread with PEANUT butter spread over it to share it. I thought it was cake. Boy was I disappointed. But I ate it because I knew she thought she was doing something good. And she was. It's called an act of kindness.

“ TO: The Sadler Family. May you find comfort in knowing your love one is with God resting in peace. The memories you have of her will be with you forever. May God strengthen each of you while on this journey. Tamara was more than a classmate to me. She was a true friend and we had a lovely sister in Christ friendship till the end of her journey. I am going to miss her and our conversation. My condolences to the family. Warmest regards, Janice Johnson-Dobbins
