“ Maxine, my heart has hurt so bad since I heard the news and my first thought was of you. Thirty-three years ago I met that precious soul and have loved him dearly ever since. I have watched in awe the strength of your love for him and your determination in making sure he was taken care of. He was so lucky to have had you as his momma. So many “Theodore” stories are part of my heart... I will always love him, and you. Keeping you in my prayers. All my love, Matilda

I cannot describe the void in my heart right now. You demonstrated true love and appreciation for the simple things in life. You showed me how to find joy and happiness in each day. You will always be my hero and my inspiration.

I love you big brother.
