Tyrone and I met as freshmen at Jackson State University, fall 1983. You are so true - his big Kool Aid smile was so infectious and endearing! After all these years I just did a Google search with his name, and sadly discovered he has transitioned onward. Please accept my sincere condolences. For a very brief time of knowing him, he truly made a positive impression on me as he did many of you.

“ Where do I begin....You were my Mr. Everything in school, Mr Smiles, Mr. Dancer, Mr Football, my Mr Friend, and most of all MY Mr. Protector. You watched out for me and made sure no one messed with your Jen and for that I will forever be grateful. I thank God for allowing me the precious time spent with "TP" Tori and the Paxton Family, may you find peace in knowing "TP" is safe in HIS arms. God Bless You All. "TP" I will see you somewhere around God's throne
