“ I woke up thinking about you and so grateful you took care of me and our brothers. When mom died you stepped in and was the best big sister. You made sure we ate, went to school and was always there for us. You didn't complain about having to take that role you just did it. I am the person I am today because of you. I still cannot believe you are gone. Who am I going to FaceTime to show me how to cook? How will I ever make food without your guidance. Losing a sister is very hard. I thought we had more time. I prayed to mom and dad for you to stay but maybe they missed you too much. That's what I tell myself to make it feel better. I know God has healed your body and even though you will be missed, I hope your healed and in no more pain. Tell mom, dad and my daughter I said I love them. It's going to take awhile to get use to this but I will try. I'm just sick of losing my family it's very heart breaking. Love you sis💔

“ To the McNair Family, Buck, Rosie, Mason, and Melvon. You have my deepest condolences in the passing of Val. She was sweet humble spirited person who had a heart of gold. She always made me feel welcome whenever I came to visit. She was an gourmet cook and baker. Cakes would melt in your mouth. Melvin, I pray that the Lord strengthen you now and days to come. I will forever cherish the memories of Val 🤔 my cousins stick together like glue. God will has not forsaken you. Rest easy Val until we meet again. I love you cousins 🥹
