

Mrs. Virginia Reed Rounds

July 5, 1939 - August 17, 2025

Virginia was born July 5, 1939, the daughter of R. T. Sims and Virginia Blanton Reed. She was a proud graduate of Sadie V. Thompson High School. Mrs. Rounds was a devoted member of Zion Hill #1 Baptist Church where she served as choir president for over 25 years. Virginia was an active and cherished member of the community. Virginia leaves to cherish her memories: her loving husband of 67 years, Andrew "Bayboy" Rounds, Jr.; devoted children: Glenda, Iris, Andra, and James (Linda), beloved grandchildren: Sylena (Karl), Vanisha (Dennis), Christopher (Jakara), Kymberly, Joshua (Clorin), Jasmine, Karrington (Fred), Jakeria, and Jaymes Akeem, great-grandchildren, siblings, Godchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends she loved dearly.

“ Mrs. Rounds was a pillar in our neighborhood on the north side of Natchez. She knew everyone who entered the door of Daisy Street Grocery, by way of a parent, grandparent, aunt, uncle or other family member. She was quick to help in our community and possessed a wealth of knowledge about Natchez. I often stopped by to grab a snack and sit with her for a while. Her Natchez stories were the best. She and I solved the problems of the world while snacking on chips, chocolate candy, and a Coke/Pepsi. Our topics included but weren't limited to: church, recipes, family updates, fishing stories, football, her children, grandchildren; great grand children, and out of town visits. Continue the family legacy and values that she instilled. Her relationship with God was evident on a daily basis. Rest In Paradise friend. Love Lorraine
