

Mr. Wayne King McMorris, Sr.

October 8, 1938 - January 29, 2022

Wayne was born October 8, 1938 in Woodville, the son of Willie McMorris, Sr. and Queen Ester Dennis-McMorris. He graduated from high school, acquired some college hours from University of Southern Mississippi and was retired as a supervisor at Stine in the lumberyard. Mr. McMorris was a member of Zion Hill #1 Baptist Church where he served as a deacon and former bass singer in the choir. He enjoyed baseball and landscaping.

He is preceded in death by his parents; brother, Willie McMorris, Sr. and son, Wayne McMorris, Jr.

Wayne leaves to cherish his memories: wife: Cordelia Howard-McMorris; three daughters: Sabrina McMorris (Terry); Kenisha McMorris and Kendall McMorris; brother, Leroy McMorris; sister, Ethel Virginia McCullum, nieces, nephews, longtime friend, Clarence Bacon, work buddy, Ernest Williams and other relatives and friends.

“ I’m going to miss you papa. Seeing you in the room across from mines in the chair watching the game or news. You taking me to the store even when grandma said no. Outside early in the morning waiting on the bus with me. There are so many memories we have that will be cherished forever. I love you and get your rest. Until we meet again.
